Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Barber Given a Surprise on 30th Wedding Anniversary—Locals.

(Mrs. E. J. Blodgett, Correspondent.) Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Barber were agreeably surprised last Friday evening when a goodly number of their friends called on them to celebrate the 30th anniversary of their marriage. Rev. J. J. Hutchinson in a few well chosen remarks, presented the happy couple with a book case, some nice pieces of china and other articles. Mrs. Hutchinson sang two well rendered solos and the remainder of the evening's entertainment consisted of music by the Victrola, refreshments and a good social time.
At a late hour the party broke up wishing Mr. and Mrs. Barber 30 more years of happy married life.

WALDEN

(N. J. Kingsbury, Correspondent.)
The community was saddened Thursday evening by the death of Herman R. Merritt at his home here after an illness of only five days with pneumonia. His death at this time seems doubly sad from the fact that his oldest son, Clark, has been dangerously ill from the same disease for the past seven weeks, but at the present time he is slowly gaining.

Herman R. Merritt was born in St. Armand, P. Q., 42 years ago, and is survived by a wife and four children.
Funeral services were held here in the church Sunday afternoon. Rev.
L. E. Taylor officiating. Those from out of town attending the funeral were:
Mrs. Mattie Gates of Burlington, a sister of the deceased and M. H. Merritt of Manchester, N. H., a brother, also Mrs. Merritt's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. B. A.
Green of St. Albans and her brother-in-law, R. B. Watson, of Madrid, N. Y.
Mr. Merritt with his family moved here about two years ago to take charge of the creamery for the Boston Jersey Creamery Co. and by his friendly, genial ways won the friendship and esteem of a large circle of friends. The body was taken to Sheldon for burial Monday, the services there being conducted by the Odd Fellows of which order he was a member. He was also a member of the K. of P. Lodge of Underhill where he formerly lived.

Rev. L. E. Taylor conducted services at Greensboro Bend last Wednesday evening.

Mr. Davis of Alburg is attending to the work in the creamery at present.

L. L. Rogers and daughter, Marjorie, were in Montpelier a few days last week.

Miss Marion Badger of Spaulding High School, Barre, is at home for the Easter vacation.

Albert Anderson and Mr. and Mrs.
P. B. Milligan of West Danville were in town Sunday to attend the funeral of H. R. Merritt.

GREENSBORO

(George A. Porter, Correspondent.) Bernard Allen is up from his New Hampshire home for a short visit to relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Jackson were visitors in St. Johnsbury last Wednesday.

Prof. N. J. Whitehill of White River Junction has been a guest at the Caspien Lake House for the past week.

Mrs. Julian Willey returned from a visit to friends in Montpelier the middle of the week.

Miss Ruth Collins is home from her school in Northfield, Mass., for the Easter vacation.

Ronald Wakefield is spending his short vacation at home.

No services were held at the Congregational church Sunday.

Several farmers have made small quantities of maple sugar the past week.

Caspien Lake Grange held a sugar social at their hall Thursday evening and served new maple sugar on snow to about 40 members.

TEN YEARS' MISERY ENDED.
J. T. Chambers, merchant, Jonesboro, Ark., writes: "Foley Kidney Pills cured me of a ten-year standing case of rheumatism, suffered miserably. A friend told me of being cured; so I used them, and they cured me, too." Most middle aged men and women are glad to learn that Foley Kidney Pills afford a way to escape sleep disturbing bladder weakness, backache, rheumatism, puffiness under eyes, stiff and swollen joints, and other ills attributed to kidney troubles.
C. C. BINGHAM.

VERMONT NEWS

W. C. Sweeney of Georgia has tapped 800 trees in a sugar orchard which had not been tapped for 25 years and is getting a good run of sap in spite of unfavorable weather.

Arthur Rousseau of Swanton was killed March 23 when a belt on a drag saw broke and pulled him into the machinery. He was 38 years old and leaves a wife and four children.

Col. Joel H. Lucia of Montpelier died March 22 after a long illness.
He was a member of Company D, 14th Vermont and served throughout the war losing his left arm at the battle of Poplar Spring church. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Rose Lucia, principal of the primary schools of Montpelier, who spends her summers at St. Johnsbury East.

Chauncey P. Nourse of Springfield, 62 years old, committed suicide March 23 by shooting himself in the head.
He had never been himself since a serious operation a short time ago.
He leaves a wife, two sons and three daughters.

Fire at Littleton March 22 badly gutted the Tilton opera block at a loss of about $60,000. The fire was caused by the explosion of a kerosene stove on the third floor. The second floor which was occupied by offices was entirely wiped out and the stores on the first floor suffered a heavy damage from water as eight streets were played on the fire continuously for five hours. The heavy losers were H. P. Johnson, E. C.
Bailey, Knights of Pythias, Woodman Drug Co., Feury Bros. and Mrs.
E. C. Young.

The town building at Duxbury was destroyed by fire March 23 with a loss of about $4000, half covered by insurance. It is thought that the fire started from a defective chimney.

Mrs. Mary Murphy of Barre will spend two months in Washington county jail for soliciting funds for the burial of one "Mrs. Doyle" who died of cancer.

The body of Joseph White of Cornwall, 72 years old, was found under his young colt on March 23. He had been attempting to break the colt and just how he met his death is unknown.

Enosburg Falls suffered a $25,000 fire on March 21, which destroyed the creamery and grist mill. The creamery building was owned by a corporation and was leased to a company which manufactured cheese. With the grist mill, were destroyed several carloads of grain and feed.

Rev. George Y. Bliss of Burlington will probably be consecrated Episcopal bishop coadjutor of Vermont on April 21.

Livio Francheschetti of Readsboro, five years old, was drowned in the canal there on March 22. He was playing in the road by the canal, slipped down the bank and was carried under the ice.

Mrs. Harriet Abell of Enosburg Falls celebrated her 100th birthday on March 22. She was given a party by the Methodist church of which she is the oldest member and at the party she repeated a poem which she had recently learned. She was one of 11 children of whom she is the last save one, a brother, 95, in Iowa.
